6. Description of content: Description of content: Revision of harmonized Mercosur regulations on vegetable products from the period of 1995 to 1997. The new regulations remove the general requirements which asked for additional declarations on the Phytosanitary Certificates from any origin in the world for the mentioned products, maintaining in the new regulation harmonized specific requisites for the Mercosur member countries (Argentina, Paraguay and Uruguay). From now on, according to the new above-mentioned regulations, a pest risk analysis (PRA) has to be made for every product to be imported from any country of origin. A time limit of 180 days, after the new regulation is in force, is given for the preparation of the pest risk analyses. In the meantime the previous requisites will prevail. Traditional exporting countries of these products have already started the PRA request in 1999 but, in general, have not provide yet all the information to finish the PRA. Under the present conditions, Mercosur member countries do not have to submit PRAs for any of the products covered by INs 6 to 32.
