NORWAY'S INTEGRATION PROGRAMME

In reply to your letter of 29 January the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has been able to supply the following information:

1. The second stage integration programme included the following products which earlier, i.e. until 1 January 1996, had been subject to quantitative restrictions:

- products in categories # 1 (jackets) and # 2 (trousers) classified under HS 62.10.40 or 62.10.50.

Affected countries: the Czech Republic; Hong Kong, China; Hungary; India; Indonesia; Korea; Macau; Malaysia; Pakistan; the Philippines; Poland; Romania; Singapore; the Slovak Republic; Sri Lanka and Thailand.

2. The third stage integration programme included the following products which during part of the two earlier stages had been subject to quantitative restrictions:

- products in categories # 1 (jackets) and # 2 classified under HS 62.04.11, 62.04.12, 62.04.13, 62.04.19, 62.04.21, 62.04.22, 62.04.23, 62.04.29, 62.04.31, 62.04.32, 62.04.33, 62.04.39, 62.04.6109, 62.04.6209, 62.04.6309 or 62.04.6909.

Affected countries: the Czech Republic; Hong Kong, China; Hungary; India; Indonesia; Korea; Macau; Malaysia; Pakistan; the Philippines; Poland; Romania; Singapore; the Slovak Republic; Sri Lanka; and Thailand. These products were liberalized in three steps, i.e. 1 January 1996, 1 January 1998 or 1 January 1999.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed)
Rikke Eeg-Henriksen
Counsellor
